GET EDUCATION FIRST, WARNS FRED B. SMITH

Mr. Smith is speaking at Fort Shafter this afternoon. This evening he will address a student rally in the games hall at the Y. M. C. A.

"If you want to weaken or wreck a nation knock out its education system," declared Fred B. Smith, the businessman-evangelist, in an address to a student assembly in Cooke hall, Y. M. C. A. building, last night. The address was heard by the students of the "Y" day and night schools, and Cooke hall was filled to capacity.

Mr. Smith congratulated the young men on the fact that they were devoting their evenings and other spare time to study. He touched briefly on the great world war. Speaking of Germany, he said: "If there is one thing that has made Germany more powerful in the last several years it is the fact that its people have been studying day and night."

He declared that every young man should strive to improve himself to get a better job and earn more money. And his educational training, he added, must be backed up by a clean body and a strong character if he expects to come out victorious in life's battles.

Young men today, he continued, are winning success in life on the narrowest of margins, and the man with the margin of education is going to come out on top.

One of the best events at the Y. M. C. A. has been the football banquet which for a number of years has proved an excellent get-together of the gridiron artists from the various schools at the close of the season. This evening a special student rally for the fellows from all the schools will be staged in the Y. M. C. A. games hall at 7:30.

Fred B. Smith, the big 225-pound orator and athlete of New York, will be the attraction. He will deliver an address to the audience of boys and young men from Punahou, McKinley, Kamehameha, College of Hawaii, Mills and the Honolulu Military academy along with the students of the Y. M. C. A. day and night schools. Godfrey Bergman of Punahou will lead some rousing singing, which starts at 7:30 sharp, with Glenn Jackson, physical director of the "Y," at the piano.

FRED B. SMITH WILL TALK TO ATHLETES AT Y. M. C. A. THIS EVENING

CENTRAL UNION HAS INTERESTING SOCIAL. ENLISTED MEN GUESTS

Enlisted men of the service were guests last night at a social given by the women's society of Central Union church. This was the second of a series of monthly socials that are to be given this winter.

The program included solos by Mrs. George Tackabury, accompanied by Miss Alice Harrison; comic songs by G. L. Bergman, accompanied by Miss Helen Grace Cadman; readings by Miss Porterfield, instructor in expression at Punahou, and a number. "Over There," by the men's quartet of the church. The soldier guests added a number of features which were heartily applauded.

NO SHIPPING TROUBLES HERE

We've experienced no difficulty in getting full shipments of men's, women's and children's wear, and that the public knows this is evidenced by the great number of bargain hunters that crowd the Boston Store daily. Never have we been able to display so large an assortment of up-to-date goods. If you want your money to bring you more value than it has ever brought before, call at 150 North King street, opposite the fishmarket.—Adv.

JAPANESE WAGE ASSN. WILL MEET TONIGHT

To hear the reports of the investigation committee and the negotiation committee, the Japanese Wage Association will hold a meeting tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the Japanese school on Nuuanu street. While the committees are not yet prepared to make a detailed statement of their work, it is understood that information will be given members of the association at the meeting as to the supposed plans of the sugar companies. Ways and means of securing more wages for Japanese plantation laborers will be discussed.

Enlisted men who have had the pleasure of attending any of these gatherings were invited to meet the couple at Chaplain Fealy's quarters this afternoon to again meet the parties who had so generously entertained them. The 1st Field Artillery band was on hand and discoursed the latest pieces during the course of the reception.

WAR AGAINST FLIES AT KAWILOA CAMP

Careful guard against flies is kept at Camp Liliuokalani, both as a matter of cleanliness and to guard fully against the possible spreading of typhoid fever, which is common in some parts of the island. Each day every scrap of refuse in the camp is burned in the regular army incinerators with which each company is supplied. The guardsmen have not been inoculated with the anti-typhoid serum. Major Harry N. Kearns, Medical Corps, is in charge of the sanitary work.

ARMY MEN GIVE RECEPTION FOR HONOLULU HOSTS

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence.)
SCHOFFIELD BARRACKS, Nov. 15.—Chaplain Fealy's quarters in the artillery cantonment this afternoon was the scene of a reception tendered Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lucas and party, of Honolulu, complimentary to the couple's interest in the troops of Oahu, having entertained numbers of them at pretty affairs at their Diamond Head home, the gatherings usually taking place on Sundays, and started with a dinner, followed by entertainment and dancing, and were very much enjoyed by such soldiers as were fortunate in receiving invitations for the affair.
